William Grimsdell Unwittingly Becomes Youth's Target.

WOUND IS NOT SERIOUS

R. F. HILDEBRAND AND U. FOGH BOYS BEHIND GUN.

William Grimsdell, proprietor of th Grocer Printing company, who lives at 753 East Fourth South street, was accidentally shot in the back about o'clock last night by Robert F. Hildebrand, 15 years of age, and Valdeman Fogh, 14 years of age. The boys were playing with a revolver in the ditch in front of Mr. Grimsdell's residence, when it was discharged.

Mr. Grimsdell, accompanied by his wife, had just entered their gate as the builet struck him between the shoulders. It dazed him for a moment and, turnng around, he saw two boys run across Going into the house he took off his coat and vest to see if he wounded. The wound bled a little but he felt no bad effects from it. Mr Grimsdell put on his coat and went ou to find out who fired the shot. alled at Mr. Fogh's residence, 715 East Fourth South street, and inquinred i hey had heard a shot fired. Valdema had come home, and without saying a word, went to bed. His father called him and he said that he and Robert Hildebrand had been playing with a re volver which accidentally Mr. Grimsdell and Mr. Fogh went across the street to Hildebrand's residence and Robert told them the same story. He had hidden the gun in his ather's barn and showed them wher

Rush to Pay Taxes.

About $45,000 was collected in the county treasurer's office yesterday, making a total for two days of $55,000 received for taxes. Today it is expected that the receipts will be $20,000, and, as this is the last day for payment, the total will reach about $25,000, collected this year. This will leave a balance of about $158.000, but all of the latter amount will not become delinquent, as the treasurer has decided to hold the accounts open for a few days to accommodate the beet growers of Weber county who received their pay from the Amalgamated Sugar company yesterday. The delinquent list this year for this county will probably reach $100,000. Offer of Rev. J. Wesley Hill Causes

Funeral of George W. Reid.

The First Methodist church of Ogden may have a factional fight which will bring back to many Ogdenites the remembrance of the time when J. Wesley Hill was pastor of the church. It was during the time that Hill was here that the edifice was built. A heavy church debt remained unpaid when Hill left here to accept a charge in the east. The congregation under the pastorate of Rev. Samuel Blair has struggled bravely with this debt but has been unable to wipe it out. The offer of Mr. Hill is to clear the church of its indebtedness, providing the name is changed to "The Hill Memorial church." in memory of his dead wife. It is stated that many of the members of the church still feel bitter toward Mr. Hill. though Mr. Blair, it is said, is a great friend of his predecessor. By some of those who have struggled to clear off the debt the offer of Mr. Hill is welcomed while others are angered by the proposition. A conference will be called when the proposition will be brought up. There seems to be a strong sentiment against Mr. Hill here. It is said that he is aspiring to the bishopric of the church, that his record in Ogden is against him, and it is with the hope of wiping this out that the offer is being made. However, the Indebtedness of the church at present is only about $1,000 and there are those of the congregation who are of the opinion that they can clear that off within the next year. Mr. Hill was for a number of years pastor of the Grace Methodis', church at Harrisburg, Pa., but about six months ago resigned to accept a charge in Brooklyn, N. Y.
